OPIUM ORDINANCE TO BE AMENDED

The Gazette publishes particulars of an Ordinance to amend the law relating to Opium. Under "Objects and Reasons" the following appears:—

Section 3 of the Opium Amendment Ordinance, 1933, amended section 15 of the principal Ordinance, by "bringing within the scope of the section owners, occupiers and managers of premises who knowingly suffer them to be used as divans."

In a recent case the Full Court decided that the tenant of a floor of a Chinese tenement house, who had sublet a portion of that floor was not an occupier of the portion so sublet within the meaning of the amended section.

The present amendment substitutes for section 15 of the principal Ordinance an amended section on the lines of section 13 of the Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1885, re-enacting in different terms the provisions of old section 15 relating to persons who smoke in, keep or occupy an opium divan, and, in new paragraph 1 (d) extending those provisions to include a lessor or landlord who knowingly lets, or having let wilfully consents to the use of his holding or any part thereof for the purposes of an opium divan.

Sub-section (2) of new section 15 indicates the scope of the terms
"lessee," "tenant," "lessor" and
"landlord" used in the section, and the steps which a lessor or landlord who becomes aware that the premises let by him are used as an opium divan should take in order to discharge the liability imposed on him by sub-section (1).

CHAPTER V

The stage darkened. A ballet of girls dressed as cats, and boys dressed as violins appeared in an elaborate production number. Pom-pigneau and Rosamond sang through the ballet "One Moment Alone."

Off-stage, Victor took Shirley in his arms.

"Shirley—darling—I've only a minute and so much to say."

"Don't say it. I've got to change."

"I was in the way—Shirley—in the way of your happiness—your success."

"The affair is over!" Shirley repeated his words.

"You've got to listen to me."

They were now in front of her dressing room door.

"You came here because you love me."

"I came here because I didn't want to see any one go to jail—not even you."

She entered her room and slammed the door. He stood staring at her. A stage manager bustled by.

"Mr. Florescu—Hurry—the curtain."

Victor, roused, started for his dressing room. He found Daudet waiting for him outside.

"Just dropped in to wish you luck," Daudet said.

"Thank you."

"It's going surprisingly well."

"Daudet—Victor struggled with his costume."

"Yes?"

"You're not going to marry Shirley to-morrow?"

"No?"

"Daudet—she still loves me."

He changed to his Pierrot costume.

"Indeed?"

"I am humble at the thought of it, but she loves me."

"You're quite sure?"

"She came to save me to-night."

"You poor fool. I brought her here."

"Yes—I can imagine."

"I insisted she come."

"Of course," Victor scoffed.

"If she sailed with me to-morrow, leaving you hanging, she would always reproach herself. She'd pity you. You'd always be a ghost between us."

Victor believed him now.

"Now, when she's rescued you from your mess, we can sail with a clear conscience. She will save you—yes. But she'll despise you."

"You're very wise."

"Experience, my son."

"But you forget one thing, I'm young. She's young. I love her and she—"

"Only in operettas does the handsome young leading man always get the beautiful young leading woman," Daudet said, contemptuously.

"All right. I'm going out now, to play love scenes with Shirley that I've played a thousand times in my imagination. I'll hold in my arms, again—"

"Make believe!"

"Not the way I'll play them."

Daudet moved to the door. The lights blinked.

"Play your love scene to your heart's content. I'll watch you from the wings—and applaud."

On the stage were the piccolo players, with the chorus singing
"The Passionate Pilgrim" from the score. Pompigneau appeared, followed by Rosamond.

"In the land of make believe, I am more powerful than emperors," Pompigneau said, pointing to the puppets.

Pompigneau and Rosamond were left alone.

"Pompigneau—I'm tired."

"Here is your couch—" He indicated the ground under the prop tree. "Here is your pillow—" He piled a pack of leaves for her pillow. "And the sky is your blanket."

The orchestra played the introduction to "A Breeze Kissed Her Hair." As he stretched out under the tree, he sang the song to her.
Then the stage lighted.

"The sun! The night is over."

"You can't go," Pompigneau protested as she rose to go.

"I must!"

"But I love you."

Rosamond began to sing: "Try to forget."

"Try to forget all that you've meant to me—And all that I've meant to you, too—The gay dreams

"I can't forget," Victor interrupted her.

He took her in his arms. Daudet was watching from the wings.

"There's no more make believe.
Let me go."

"We can make our reality make believe. Not only the night, but the morning and the twilight and the dawn and the afternoon were made for our love. There's a land of make believe in my garret, in the street, because it's in our hearts."

He kissed her.

"No-no-no-no—"

And then she was silent. He embraced her. She stopped struggling. She kissed him.

"You do love me! You do! You do! Say it!"

"I do! I do!"

They forgot that an audience was watching them. Daudet, in the wings, shrugged his shoulders, resignedly. While the curtain went up and down, the two were still locked in embrace.

LESSON SERMON
First Church Of Christ, Scientist, Hong Kong
"Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?"
The subject of the Lesson-Sermon which was read in all Churches of Christ Scientist, on Sunday, April 15.
The Golden Text was: "I will restore health unto thee, and I will heal thee of thy wounds, saith the Lord." (Jeremiah 30:17)
Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "And seeing the multitudes, he went up into a mountain: and when he was set, his disciples came unto him: And he opened his mouth and taught them, saying, Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: but to fulfil. For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled. Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven; but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven. For I say unto you, That except your righteousness exceed the righteousness of the scribes and pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven" (Matthew 5:17-20).
The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with

HAD TO REMAIN FRIENDS
To Get His Money Back

Shanghai, April 10.
Arthur Charles Mack, 52, merchant, yesterday entered the witness box and gave evidence on his own behalf, when the case of Rex v. Mack was again called on in H. M. Supreme Court before Judge A. G. Mossop and a jury. When under cross-examination by Mr. Priestwood, the witness became very voluble and excited, volunteering explanations before a question was put completely.
Mack is charged with obtaining in conspiracy with certain other persons by means of a forged cheque alleged to be drawn by the British American Tobacco Co. in favour of the China Leaf Tobacco Co., upon the Chartered Bank of India, Australia and China Ltd., the sum of $136,888.20 with intent to defraud.
Mr. Victor Priestwood, acting Crown Advocate appeared for the prosecution, while the accused is defended by Mr. E. L. Hartopp.
Mack's Story
The accused, in answer to his counsel, stated that he had known Ionin first about two years ago, when he was introduced to him as a high Soviet Government official desirous of disposing of a large quantity of gunny bag valued at about $250,000 who desired his firm to finance their importation to Shanghai. Believing that this was genuine business, "and knowing that the Soviet Government had a lot of cargo which they kept on dumping all over in order to raise money, I thought I could get control of that business" and his firm agreed to finance same.
About 12 months ago Mack said he had his first suspicious aroused, because a draft for $300,000 odd which had been left with him with a Netherlands consular certificate of identification as security had been cancelled and withdrawn.
Mack also stated that Ionin, Kasuin and others were at liberty to use the typewriters in his office, which he very rarely visited in the afternoons, and Ionin frequently borrowed and took away a machine to type letters on at home.
Mack gave specific denials that he had ever typed cheques out at the request of Ionin, or anyone else, drawn upon any bank whatsoever.
Have you ever profited by any business dealings which you have had with Ionin?—Not one cent.
Have you ever entered into conspiracy with Ionin or anyone else to defraud anyone?—Never.
Have you ever sought to procure or requested Salnik to purchase a block of any description?—Never.
Have you ever sought to procure or requested Kashin to cash a cheque?—Never.
Answering further questions by Mr. Hartopp, Mack denied that he had ever discussed the question "with anyone whomsoever of securing by fraud or by means of a forged cheque, money from the Chartered bank, or any other bank; nor have I been aware at any time that such a project was on foot. I have never heard such a thing discussed in my office, or in any other place.
Did you ever inform Mr. Yorke that what you had told him about Caminien was untrue?—Never.
Finally this witness declared: "I am perfectly innocent of the charges which have been made against me."

Cross-examination
The witness was closely cross-examined by Mr. Priestwood in connection with the statements which he had made earlier, and some of his answers were given as rapidly that they were "sometimes difficult to hear and frequently he had to be stopped by the Judge. He admitted that at the request of Ionin he had opened an account in the Franco-Chinese bank in French Town with the sum of $1,000 in the name of L. Setchkin. He giving the signature and Ionin keeping the cheque book. Asked why this "nom-de-plume was used, he said it was at the suggestion of Ionin, "who didn't want anybody to know he had a lot of money" as it was intended to put into that account the Sokoloff money" when it was received from Paris, "but" said witness somewhat sadly "I never came." Mack also admitted that he had about 12 months ago received a warning against Ionin from Supt. Yorke, "but I had to keep friends with Ionin then in order to get my money back."

THE BOWERY

Another Triumph For Wallace Beery

Certain authorities on the subject hold that the song quoted above robbed the once "livest mile" on the face of the globe "of its glamour; there are others just as certain the advent of prohibition turned the Bowery into the drab and bedraggled street it is to-day. Leaving such disputes to those who delve into the archives of forgotten glory, if glory it can be called, it must be admitted that the wicked old eighth and the naughty nineties are jammed with as colourful accounts of breezy goings-on as can be found in any period of American history.

In casting about for a story to set their new 20th Century company "in motion, Joseph M. Schenck and Darryl Zanuck came across a yarn called "The Bowery," written by Michael Simmons and B. R. Solomon, and immediately ceased their quest for a getaway vehicle. Rich in comedy and dramatic "high spots," "The Bowery," laid in the day of Chuck Connors, alias the Major of Chinatown, and Steve Brodie, who either did or didn't jump off the Brooklyn sporting world and theatrical celebrities as John L. Sullivan, Carrie Nation, Frankie Bailey, Maggie Cline, Bill Muldoon, Buffalo Bill and Jake Kilrain.

To the lot of Wallace Beery, who can do more with a smirk or a silly grin than most leading men can do with an entire film of acting, falls the task of bringing to the screen one of the most picturesque characters of the time when the Bowery was in full flower. He has now added to his overflowing gallery of silent and talking screen portraits the characterization of Chuck Connors, as "The Bowery."

With all due respect to the rich colour of George Raft's Steve Brodie and Jackie Cooper's Swipes, the newsboy, in "The Bowery," the characterization of Beery as Connors is more striking. If ever a part was tailored to the talent of Wallace Beery, that part is Chuck Connors, guide and friend of celebrities an humble Oriental, and a fancy dresser according to his own notions of flashy elegance.

That was George Washington Connors, the Bowery leader whom it is Wallace Beery's privilege to introduce to the cinema public. Not only is Beery a natural for the important job of reincarnating the wit and mannerisms of Connors for the screen, but he also bears a striking physical resemblance to the former Major of Chinatown.

One of the most famous stories about Chuck, and which is shown in "The Bowery," deals with the time Carrie Nation invaded a ball of the Chuck Connors Association and was hit on the head with a bottle in the hand of one of the red-haired beauties in attendance. The excitement ended when the police answered a riot call.

That Beery is in his element amidst such hullabaloo can well be imagined by all who have followed his varied and extensive type of roles.

Final Showings At Lee Theatre

"The Maid of the Mountains" which commenced at the Lee Theatre yesterday and which will have its final showings to-day, surpasses both in beauty and thrills the expectations of even the producers themselves.

The haunting melodies which have been hummed all over the world by all people are brought once more to your ears as an accompaniment to one of the most thrilling and romantic stories the screen has yet offered.

Nancy Brown, an exotic and talented newcomer to the screen is in the leading role, playing opposite that popular actor, Harry Welchman. The support includes such versatile players as Betty Stockfield, Albert Burdon and Rene Gadd.

Many of the scenes were filmed in one of England's most famous beauty spots, Cheddar Gorge. The film may indeed be called a super-production and it is our recommendation that you pay the Lee Theatre a visit to-day.

SLEEPING THROUGH AN
EARTHQUAKELee Tracy As A Reporter

"Advice to the Lovelorn," the latest production of Joseph M. Schenck and Darryl F. Zanuck's new 20th Century Pictures, will be the attraction at the Alhambra on Thursday.

The wise-cracking Lee Tracy is seen in the starring role, as a young reporter on a Los Angeles daily whose propensity for hard liquor dauses him to miss the biggest story of the year by sleeping peacefully through an earthquake. As suitable punishment, his editor demotes him to the humiliating post of "agony" column conductor. Tracy attempts to retaliate by giving the wildest advice that ever appeared in a newspaper column, with the result that he brings down upon his head the wrath of frantic mammas and wronged ladies and gets himself embroiled in several highly melodramatic situations, some of which develop comic and some, alas, highly tragic consequences.

Pretty Sally Blane plays the sweetheart for whose sweet sake Tracy tries to worm his way out of the humiliating job. Featured with Sally are Isabel Jewel, Paul Harvey, Judith Wood and May Boley. Sterling Holloway, C. Henry Gordon, Jean Adair, Matt Briggs, Charles Levinson, Adalyn Doyle and Etienne Girardot complete the

Eddie Cantor Proves Great Draw

The Queen's Theatre enjoyed full houses in each of their four performances on Saturday and yesterday, when they screened "Roman Scandal" in which that popular and delightfully entertaining comedian, Eddie Cantor, takes the main role.

Eddie Cantor needs no introduction to the Hongkong public and coming to the Colony in a picture which affords such an excellent medium for his peculiar talents, he once more enhanced his reputation among local talkie fans.

Those who have not seen Eddie Cantor's latest picture should make it a point to do so as it means two hours of good, healthy fun. Eddie's latest picture is every bit as good as "The Kid from Spain," which proved so popular at its first appearance in Hongkong.

Some idea of the entertainment afforded by the picture can be gained by the fact that among the various episodes in the story is one in which Eddie is appointed official food taster to a Roman monarch who had escaped poisoning about a dozen times. To a long list of dead food-tasters Eddie's name is added, not because he was poisoned, but because he was ordered to be executed by the Emperor for refusing to taste food!

Another scene shows Eddie in the torture chamber. While the producers have managed to eliminate the gruesome aspects of torture, they have introduced into the film all the lighter side of this grim practice of the Dark Ages. In the hands of Eddie Cantor, a torture scene becomes one in which the audience is provoked to great hilarity.

In addition to the main picture there is a very clever cartoon in colours, called "Lullaby Land," which forms a suitable prelude to a really funny picture. Don't miss the present opportunity of seeing one of the best humorous films of the year.

from the Ben Hecht script. Paramount's screen treatment of the celebrated comedy is now showing at the King's Theatre.

If the recent "Trouble in Paradise" was hinted at as the high-water mark of Lubitsch subtlety, may that remark now be cancelled in favour of a superior work? Here the celebrated Lubitsch touches exceed great expectations. Too numerous to mention individually, they perhaps reach their apex in the nuptial chamber scene between Miss Hopkins and Horton and in the morning aftermath when the husband takes a good swift kick at the little wedding gift from March and Cooper, who forthwith make their auspicious appearance.

The finesse and colour displayed by March and Miss Hopkins was more or less expected of them in the characters played on the stage by Coward and Lynn Fontanne, and they fulfilled all the anticipation, but the surprise of the show was Gary Cooper, who the role played behind the footlights by Alfred Lunt. Like March, Miss Hopkins and Horton, he proved himself a master of innuendo.

The most gratifying feature of the picture is the fact that while Ben Hecht re-wrote the play, not one single situation or climax of the original was deleted. All are here, bristling with the Coward dramatic sense, individuality and resourcefulness.

In short, "Design for Living" should go on your list of pictures to see. After that you can indulge in an engaging little game of wondering just what nine out of ten other directors would have done with this colourful modern version of the funniest eternal triangle you've ever seen.

BANISHEE'S SENTENCE

Bench And Police Differ

The question of inflicting the right sentence to a banishee was brought up before Q. A. A. Macfadyen at Central Magistracy on Saturday, when a woman, who had been deported for a period of ten years for begging, was sentenced to one month's hard labour for returning.

Inspector Vincent, in charge of Criminal Records, applied to his Worship to reconsider the penalty. Even a blind beggar usually received six or nine months, he said. He had never heard of a sentence of one month for returning from banishment.

The Magistrate remarked that his personal view at the moment was that one had to consider what the person was banished for. There was a big difference between being banished for a number of larcenies and being banished for two small fines for begging.

Inspector Vincent pointed out that banishment was to keep people away from the Colony, and if they returned they should get a sentence which they would remember.

The Magistrate—I have not time to reconsider the sentence now. At the moment I cannot decide. It is not a thing that can be decided at once. I am prepared to re-hear the case within seven days.

Det.-Sergeant H. N. Moran said he himself arrested her six weeks ago. "Every time she is arrested she has a different child," he added. She was banished last month.

Sentence of one month's hard labour was imposed on Ng Chung, unemployed, by Mr. Q. A. A. Macfadyen at the Central Magistracy on Saturday morning, for receiving stolen goods from a juvenile at a godown in New Street. The boy was charged with stealing and remanded until Tuesday. Inspector James prosecuted.

UNLAWFUL POSSESSION OF OPIUM

Chinese Heavily Fined

A charge of unlawful possession of seventeen tins of raw opium was preferred against a Chinese named Chan Ping before Mr. Wynne-Jones at the Kowloon Magistracy last Saturday morning.

It was stated that the accused was arrested at the Kowloon-Canton Railway Station last Friday evening, when the last down-train arrived. The raw opium was found tied around his waist with oil paper.

The defendant pleaded guilty and was fined $500 or in default three months' hard labour. In addition to the fine, an order for the confiscation of the opium was also made.

A RETURNED BANISHEE

Charged With Theft Of Clothes

Before Mr. Macfadyen at the Central Police Court on Saturday morning, Yu Chun, a returned banishee, pleaded guilty to a breach of his Deportation Order and theft of clothes, valued at about $45 from a Chinese woman, Fong Kiu of No. 47, Lower Lascar Row, ground floor.

It was stated that the defendant was a returned banishee, who had been banished from the Colony on the 23rd October 1924 for a period of ten years, but recently the defendant came back to the Colony and hid himself in

No. 101, Kwangtung Road, 3rd floor, Yaumatei. When arrested by a Chinese detective last Friday morning, it was discovered that the accused had already stolen some clothes from a Chinese woman from the above mentioned premises sometime last month, for several pawn-tickets were found in his pockets.

A sentence of nine months' hard labour was imposed.

CRIMINAL SESSIONS

Wong Yung, alias Wong Lo, is charged with robbery by two or more.

Cheung Po-fung, Fong Kwai, and Yu Chung are charged with conspiracy to commit an offence, while the first defendant faces an extra charge of the unlawful possession of arms and ammunition, and the third defendant is charged with the unlawful possession of a weapon and ammunition.

HONG KONG'S GOOD NAME

(To the Editor of the "Hong Kong Daily Press")

Sir,—I should like to support Mr. Moxon in his protest against the unwarranted libel contained in the address of Mr. Percival Kaye in reference to the Mui Tsai system. It is, I think, regrettable that the report of the address appeared in your columns without any editorial comment pointing out the grotesque character of the charge. The report will now, presumably, be repeated in other papers of the Far East and in due course will probably return to England in the guise of a news item from a Hong Kong journal. Questions in Parliament may follow and once more Hong Kong will be held up in an unenviable light. In order to forestall parliamentary criticism I would suggest that the Hong Kong authorities should forward to the Imperial Government an emphatic denial of Mr. Kaye's charge so that the ministerial spokesman in the House of Commons may be fully prepared to answer questions and will not have to plead for time to communicate with Hong Kong.—Yours faithfully, C.

Hong Kong, April 14.

[The ignorance displayed by Mr. Percival Kaye is so gross as not to merit editorial comment.—Ed.]

BAG-SNATCHING EPISODE

European Lady Visitor Robbed

A daring bag-snatching episode took place at Salisbury Road late yesterday evening, when an unemployed Chinese, Leung Kam, 27, robbed a European lady of her handbag as she was proceeding to the Star Ferry Wharf in Kowloon, while she was outside Messrs. Alex Ross and Company's Garage.

Mrs. Gourley, visitor to the Colony and a guest of Commodore and Mrs. Frank Elliott, was walking towards the Star Ferry Wharf at about 8.15 p.m. yesterday, when a Chinese approached from behind and snatched her bag, disappearing behind the European Y.M.C.A.

It appears that Pte R. Wilkinson of the East Lancashire Regiment was in the near vicinity, and hearing the cry for help, ran in pursuit of the thief, catching him just behind the European Y.M.C.A.

The handbag contained a gold cigarette case valued at $100 and a powder box valued at $5.

The accused who is charged with bag-snatching, will probably appear before Mr. Wynne-Jones at the Kowloon Magistracy this morning.

K. R. A. MEETING

Needy Problems Discussed

Many matters of interest were discussed at the ordinary monthly meeting of the Kowloon Residents' Association, held in St. Andrew's Church Hall last Monday.

The following were present:—Mr. L. D'Almada e Castro (President), Mr. H.F. Burne (Vice President), Mr. R.P. Phillips (Hon. Treasurer), Mr. C.M. Hall (Hon. Secretary), Messrs. F.C. Mow Hong, W. Goldenberg, R. Pestonji, H.F. Un, C.E. Terry, H. Murray, Lam Ming Fan, E. Kern, Dr. R.A. de Castro, Baisto, Lt. Col. E.D. Matthews, Capt. R. Henderson and the Rev. E.L. Allen.

A communication addressed to the Colonial Secretary calling attention to the slow rate of progress in the preparation of the new site for the Central British School was read and approved, as was also a letter addressed to the Postmaster General in connection with the granting of licences for the sale of postage stamps in Kowloon and its Divisions.

Drainage

The subject of lack of drainage in the Homuntin area was discussed and it was decided that a communication be forwarded to the Hon. Colonial Secretary with a copy to the head of the Sanitary Department, calling attention to the large area affected by the absence of a flush system and requesting information if any remedy was contemplated and, if not, how Government proposed to deal with the matter.

A report from a sub-committee appointed to investigate the matter of watering of streets was submitted. It dealt exhaustively with the subject and it was decided that a letter be drafted and sent to Government outlining the Association's findings in the matter and strongly recommending that Government give this question its immediate consideration.

Collection of Refuse

Correspondence between the Sanitary Department and the Association dealing with the proposal by the Department to eliminate entirely the ringing of the refuse bell in certain quarters, was read. This decision was the outcome of numerous requests to the Department and, in adopting the new method, it was pointed out that this could only be accomplished by the co-operation on the part of occupiers of premises in the district.

The question of the unsatisfactory collection of refuse was also brought to the attention of the Committee. It was stated that trucks had been observed collecting refuse which had no covers in use; the original metal covers had apparently been removed while the canvas covers on others were also missing.

The introduction of two experimental gaseous discharge lamps on Nathan and Waterloo Roads was brought to the attention of the Committee and the opinion was expressed that this type of illumination was eminently satisfactory. After discussion, the matter was left to a sub-committee for further experiment.

The President brought to the attention of the Committee a question of band concerts which the Government had supported by special grant in 1931.

It was the general opinion of the Committee, however, that, owing to the increase in the entertainment field during the past two or three years, these concerts would not receive the support of a sufficiently large portion of the public. The matter was accordingly left in abeyance.

SMALL FERRY-BOAT SUNK

Eight People Drowned

According to a Canton vernacular paper, at about 3.30 p.m. last Saturday a small ferry-boat with eight passengers on board was sunk by a sudden squall, near the shore of the Sand River of the Pok Lo District.

During the disaster, all the people on board the ferry were thrown into the water, and except the coxswain and the sailors, who managed to reach the shore, the others on board are believed to have all been drowned.

COPPER IDOL ACCOUNTS FOR CLASSY FIELD

PUNTERS LEAVE SECOND. LEG OF DAILY DOUBLES UNBACKED

"Soldier" Stable Has Good Day

(BY "MORNING DEW")

The feature of Saturday's Racing was the fact that the two biggest outsiders of the day came in to win in the races selected for the "Daily Doubles" with the result that no single punter managed to back both winners. Those who succeeded in picking only the first "leg," however, were paid $335 each, as against a pari-mutuel dividend of $177.

Mr. Norman Deltz again had a very successful day, riding four winners, a second and a third in eight outings. Mr. Gilbert Harriman had a couple of wins bringing home The Bodega in the second race and Copper Idol in the fifth, in which a number of the best sibs of the past three seasons faced the starter.

Mr. P. P. Botelho won with West Parade in the seventh race accounting for a field of seventeen starters. The pony paid over $100 to his supporters.

Wonderful Stag Wins Opening Race

There were ten starters in the first race in which Lemberg was made favourite. The pony was carrying 168 pounds and made a good show of it over the first mile where he led most of the way accompanied by Solar Star, and closely followed by Spinaway, with the rest of the field well up. At the village bend, Jungle Jim began to improve his position meanwhile Spinaway drew up with the leader. Into the straight Lemberg and Spinaway led the field with Jungle Jim coming up strongly between them. It looked as though the race was going to be decided between these three, when High Speed, who had been well placed most of the way, joined the issue on the outside and Wonderful Stag on the rails. A thrilling race home saw Norman Deltz bringing his mount home a winner by two lengths with Jungle Jim second and Spinaway third and High Speed fourth.

THE BODEGA

Jumping away to a good start, Mr. Harriman on The Bodega led practically all the way home in a close race over six furlongs in the Union Plate where there was a field of eighteen. The winner kept the rails and allowed the pony to run freely in the early stage of the race. Hell for Leather, in Good Time and Scar Face were all well up with the leader in the back stretch, but once the last quarter post was reached, The Bodega began to shake them off. Mr. Deltz on Delightful Chance came nicely through at the distance post, but the pony found the effort of picking up the leader too big a job and had to be content with second place. Mr. S. Y. Laing on The Carp had to contend with a bad start, and, after winding his way through the field, came up with a big rush at the finish to take third place.

HUNGHOM BAY HANDICAP

Soldier of China proved himself a great pony when he accounted for a very good field in the Hunghom Bay Handicap over a mile and a quarter. It is interesting to note that this is the first time the pony has raced on a course, that was not slippery and heavy. Bright Star, Gladiator and Prima Donna were all about as well backed as the winner. Flying Tourist led the field with Tiana, while Electric Star, Prima Donna, Gladiator, Bright Star, Soldier of China and Valorous followed in that order close up, there being only a difference of four lengths between the first and last pony when six furlongs from home.

The field was well punched at the Rock and it appeared to be anybody's race, but at the bend before the straight Electric Star drew out slightly with Bright Star next. It was seen that Soldier of China was running comfortably on the rails about a length and a half behind the leaders while Gladiator and Prima Donna were well up on the outside. At the distance post, Bright Star had shaken off Electric Star, but it was here that Soldier of China produced a burst of speed that won him the race by a length and a half. Electric Star was third and Flying Tourist was fourth.

After the race, it was announced that Bright Star was disqualified because his jockey was unable to draw the correct weight on weighing in, being three pounds short. Flying Tourist was officially placed third.

ROSEHILL HANDICAP

The Australian Race drew 12 starters and once again the public made Deltz' mount the favourite. The pony won by a short head from The Goose in a very fast finish in which these two ponies drew away from the field. As the gate shot up the field divided itself into two sections, with a gap of some twenty-five yards between them. Lucy Glitters, led, with Tecumseh, The Goose and Saucy Face well up. Princess Angeline who was with the second group ran beautifully most of the way, and came up with the leaders just before the home straight, where she showed signs of her old habit of stopping. Mr. Botelho did what he could, but the pony refused to carry on and dropped clean out of the picture. Meanwhile The Goose led the field, hotly pursued by Lucy Glitters and Saucy Face. The last named left Lucy Glitters standing with a big spurt at the distance post to join The Goose. In a thrilling race home, Deltz managed to win by a short head. Lucy Glitters was third.

THE BIG UPSET

In the Subscription Griffins Handicap, over a mile and a quarter the public made a red hot favourite of Bistre, but the pony was unplaced. Racing Boy made the pace but could not stay as he used to in his best days. Gay Butterfally was well up in the early stages of the race, but he also petered out in the straight. Soldier of Fortune, accompanied Racing Boy over the first mile, when he too fell out.

Bistre meanwhile had been lying in the seventh or eighth position and gradually drew up until he was second entering the straight. The pony found the effort of catching up too much, and was never in the picture in the tussle that followed after the distance post was passed. Here Warrington came through the field, to be followed immediately after by Copper Idol who was full of running, and accounted without any difficulty for Warrington, winning by two lengths and a half. National Day made, what appeared to me to be a belated effort and putting up a great spurt, managed to get within half a length of Warrington. The winner paid $177 to his supporters.

COLONIAL STAKES

In this race over a mile for griffins which have not yet won, Mr. Soares rode a clever race, on Soldier of Germany. Getting away to a good start, he kept his pony on the rails about a length and half ahead of the field. The pony was running strongly and he could have drawn further ahead, but preferred to wait. Meanwhile Bay View, Racing Pride, The Redshank and Sporting Life all in turn took second place behind the leader, but none of them drew up with him. Once in the home straight Mr. Soares let his mount go and Soldier of Germany won comfortably by three lengths from Budge, with Ribble and Bay View dead heating for third place.

WEST PARADE

Mr. P. P. Botelho, riding West Parade, surprised a field of sixteen in the Commonwealth Handicap, second section. The pony ran well in the vanguard most of the way behind Fudge, who petered out by three furlongs from home. West Parade led into the straight followed by Racing Pluck, Tummel

Royal Flush and Tso Tak. West Parade, however, kept them all at bay. Mr. Heard on Royal Flush finished second and Tummel with Mr. Butler up, took third place. Miss Scott Harston led in both the first and second ponies which belonged to the "Tally Ho" stable. She was given a great ovation. Poker Face was well backed in this race, but was never prominent.

MRS BAY STAKES

Mr. Deltz won a meritorious race on Mayflower in this race over a mile and 171 yards. The Tiger was sent into the lead by Mr. Harriman after Boxing Eve had shot his bolt. The pony did not draw ahead by very much and was in obvious difficulties, though leading, at the head of the straight. Blue Star passed him, at the two miles post and then Mayflower came through to account for both of them and to win by three lengths. Daylight Eve, in the last hundred yards of the race, caught up Messrs. Tester and Abraham's skewbald, to finish third.

TANG WINS

Tang Man Wah scored a popular win on Classic Hall in the last race of the day, when in a close finish he beat Cavalcade (Mr. Yue Shun Wah) by half a length with Helter Skelter (Mr. Black) finishing third. There was nothing in the race in the early stages, Orlando taking a fairly long lead, which he failed to hold. Classic Hall took charge of affairs at the head of the home straight and was never in danger of losing the lead, though Cavalcade put up a good race towards the end to come within half a length of him.

FIRE IN CASTLE PEAK

Sampan Yard Damaged

A sampan repairing yard in Castle Peak Road, Cheung Sha Wan was the scene of a fire on Saturday night when three sheds belonging to the yard were completely destroyed. Fortunately no one was injured. Within five minutes, three fire engines from the Mong-Kok Station were on the scene, and, assisted by an engine from the Kowloon Station, had the fire under control in twenty minutes. The damaged property is owned by Sin Lam, who stated that the cause of the fire was probably due to a Kerosene lamp being blown over. A strong wind fanned the blaze to alarming proportions, but the fire-brigade were able to confine it to the three sheds, and four other workshops in the same yard were saved. The premises, according to the owner, were insured for $2,000.

MORE OPEN SPACES

Town planning is a very wide subject and one which demands much thought and attention. While not attempting town planning on an elaborate scale, we wish to offer some suggestions on this matter insofar as more playgrounds for the poorer Chinese children are concerned. This is a matter which has never received the attention that it is due from our efficient officials although it is no less important than some of the problems which take up so much of their time.

Thanks to the efforts of the Rotary Club, the poor children have been provided with a few playgrounds—one in Blake Gardens, one in Wanchai, opposite the Sailors' and Soldiers' Home and another couple over in the peninsula. It cannot be realised what a need these grounds are filling unless one visited them in the evenings when the lads are gathered on them in full strength. As is well-known, these grounds are fenced in, but more often than not during a game of football, the little rubber ball which is invariably used, gets kicked over the fence and in some instances a passing tram or motor-car runs over it before it can be recovered and that is the end of the ball. The Children's Playground Association appears to be doing their share of the work, and at the last annual general meeting, the President of the association, the Hon. Sir Thomas Southern, in addressing the gather said, inter alia:

"We need all the support we can get. We have spent nearly all our funds and without the subscriptions for the current year our work would be brought to a stop, and we have yet touched only the fringe of the problem in our densely populated city. We look forward to the day when every thickly populated area will have its organized playground, and when we shall have enough directors to look after the games at each ground so that the poorer children may have their share of the joy of organized play on safe grounds. I therefore appeal confidently for continued support from the Sporting Clubs in the Colony and from individual sympathisers with our work."

There is a rumour now that the Government contemplates taking back one of the Wanchai grounds for building purposes. We ourselves, and we feel that the community in general will agree with us, greatly deplore any such step. We have few enough playgrounds for the poorer children, and instead of the Government resuming any of the existing ones, we would go one step further and urge very strongly that they devise ways and means to provide more "lungs" for the crowded districts. This does not affect only the poorer children or the people who live in the overcrowded districts. It is a question which affects the community at large. Only a few days ago, the distressing news that the number of deaths from tuberculosis was almost doubled since 1923 was made known and one of the causes attributed to this was overcrowding. We are afraid that so long as there is poverty, there must needs be overcrowding, but it does not necessarily follow that there should be such a regrettable dearth of open-spaces. There are many plots on the reclamation in Wanchai that can be used as "lungs" for the people of that district. If the Government are too poor to allot more sites for this purpose, then perhaps some of our more well-to-do residents can help. True, giving a piece of land away would mean that there will be no return for the initial outlay, but in so vital a matter, affecting as it does the health of the whole Colony, the fact that they may enjoy the fresh air without any interference from traffic, should be repaid enough. The Colony needs more lungs. Let us have them, then. It is admitted that a considerable number of vacant spaces are private property and at a future date will be utilised for building, but in the meantime they are lying derelict. Could not arrangements be made to turn these into play grounds? The space required for this special form of street-arab football is quite small and there are many suitable spaces vacant in the Wanchai District for this.

CLEARANCE OF SLUM AREAS British Architects' Views

London, April 15. The report of the slum clearance committee of the Royal Institute of British Architects expresses the unanimous view that all built-up areas should be zoned for industrial, commercial or residential purposes and that a broad line of general re-development plan of all built areas should be fixed at the earliest possible moment, powers to be given to the authorities to acquire areas for large re-housing projects. A National Executive Authority with power to plan on a national scale and to ensure proper action by local authorities is suggested as desirable.—British Wireless.

THE STAVISKY SCANDAL Another Mysterious Death?

(Special to "Hong Kong Daily Press")
(By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages, Ordinance, 1894. Received, April 15, 4.30 a.m.)
Paris, April 14.

The post mortem examination on the former director of the Insurance Department of the Ministry, David, who was to have been arrested in connection with the Stavisky affair, had died suddenly before the investigation had led to any comprehensive result.

Although the examination does not exclude the possibility of death from natural causes, the internal organs will be submitted for a further analysis with a view to discovering if they reveal traces of poison.

David was to be interrogated regarding letters of ex-Minister Daladier addressed to the editor of the newspaper "Volonte" who is now in prison.

One report states that David had shared the fate of Judge Prince.—Transocean Kuo Min.

WORLD CHESS CHAMPIONSHIP

Fifth Game Ends In A Draw

(Special to "Hong Kong Daily Press")
(By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages, Ordinance, 1894. Received, April 15, 4.30 a.m.)
Villingen, April 14.

The fifth game of the Chess championship in the match between Alekhine and Bugojubow was resumed on Saturday afternoon. After the struggle had lasted nearly eight hours, the game ended in a draw whereby both competitors score a half point.

Saturday's play was highly interesting. Alekhine started with a slight advantage and despite exceedingly skillful play by Bugojubow the world champion continued to hold his own. The score is now 3½ points to Alekhine and 1 point to Bugojubow. The sixth game will be played next Wednesday at Freiburg.—Transocean Kuo Min.

DISARMAMENT PROBLEM

Armaments' Race Must Be Avoided

London, April 14. A Geneva message states that Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Spain and Switzerland have presented a memorandum to the Disarmament Conference in which they state that the disarmament convention is an immediate necessity. Holland also supports the principle of the Memorandum which warns the Conference of the danger confronting Europe of a new armaments' race. Direct conversations between the interested powers, it says, have helped to clear up the situation, but it is necessary to have a convention limiting certain branches of armaments leaving the comprehensive solution until later.—British Wireless.

IMPATIENCE AT DELAY

Smaller Nations' impatience at the delay in the Disarmament Conference is revealed in a memorandum led by Sweden and communicated to the League. The text of the proposals is the hastening of a substantial convention.

Holland, Denmark, Norway, Spain and Switzerland have approved of the proposals which will be considered at the next meeting of the Bureau.

The Swedish memorandum suggests a convention limited to certain branches of armaments, to leave a comprehensive solution until later and to postpone naval considerations until 1935.—Reuter.

POLITICS IN AUSTRIA Social-Democratic Activities

(Special to "Hong Kong Daily Press")
(By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages, Ordinance, 1894. Received, April 15, 4.30 a.m.)
Vienna, April 14.

The police undertook extensive action against the Social-Democrats in the Austrian capital in consequence of reports concerning fresh projected Social-Democratic activities, on an international scale.

Numerous visits were carried out in the dwellings of suspected persons but results so far have not been revealed.—Transocean Kuo Min.

If Gossip We Must

By PRUDENCE

A view of the modern Government buildings at Nanning, the capital of Kwangsi.

Now that the Hong Kong Season is virtually over our Society Butterflies will have to depend more and more on private or informal entertainments for their recreation and amusement. Just as St. Andrews Ball ushers in the Social Season—so St. Patrick's Ball always brings it to a close. The Big Ships return from short cruises and spend just a few brief weeks in port in preparation for their real migration up North—Popular Service-people push off for home for every Trooper—and the famous "Fishing Fleet" go too, and leave the rest of us to settle down to a quiet life again. But not so awfully quiet... even in the dull months there are plenty of pleasant ways of passing the time.

The A.D.C. did their level best to brighten our lives last week by that sparkling little Comedy "The First Mrs. Fraser." It was well put-on and marvellously acted and must go down on record as the best thing they have done since 1930.

Had it been staged in the old Theatre Royal it would have played to packed houses every night... but the local public is incurably lazy... just because the China Fleet Club is a few hundred yards off the beaten track they can't be bothered to go there, and will let the A.D.C. play to half empty houses for the first few nights... until the word goes round that it is a very good show... then everyone tries to get in on the last night and there are complaints by the disappointed ones who can't secure seats for the final performance.

MORE MEN THAN LADIES

There certainly was a full-house on Saturday and the performers must have felt rewarded for all their hard work by the tremendous enthusiasm displayed.

Delightful music was played during each interval by Miss Doreen Ma. But when I looked round with the laudable intention of studying all the pretty frocks, I had to admit myself baffled... for one thing it was so chilly that most women kept their coats or furs on all the time... and for another... there were far more men than women in the audience that night. There were any number of "stag-parties" for the occasion, and the roars of laughter, that greeted every sally from the stage proved they were in appreciative mood. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond came with a party which included Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hayward, who looked lovely in white fox... Major and Mrs. Gedge brought a party which included Miss Chester-Master, Lieut. Casson, and Mr. Sydney West. The latter is considered by some people to be the finest character actor in the Colony, and (tho' he does not appear very often in the "A.D.C. shows") he always makes a notable success and will be remembered as the French Cafe Proprietor in "Ten Minute Alibi" and as "Bob" in "Dear Brutus."

Mrs. E. S. C. Brooks was, with her husband (himself a very fine actor) and looked charming in black, with unusual shoulder frills of black crepe ribbon. Mrs. Brazier Creagh has just got back from a short holiday in India, and looked very piquant in red lace with a little black velvet coat. Mrs. Teley wore a very pretty black dress of black, with crossed shoulder straps. Miss Buckwell looked charming in soft blue lace. Matzee had the honour of dressing the two principals and I rather fancy the big butterfly bows of lace and lawn worn by both Mrs. Grossman (with her charming little black coat and skirt) and the similar one worn by Mrs. Jupp in the second act will be widely copied.

After the show most people made a bee-line for the Hong Kong Hotel (with the idea of getting in at least one dance and one drink before closing time). The place was already crowded, and when the theatre-goers arrived on the scene the crush had to be seen to be believed. All the best people were there, and the only way to give you an idea of the popularity of the place would be to print a short list of the five or six well-known people who were not present.

"RANCHI" BOUQUETS

A great many charming people have departed since I penned my last gossip column, and I rather think that "The Ranchi" holds the record for bouquets this Spring. Never have I seen so many gorgeous flowers arrive on any one ship. When the time of sailing arrived the gangways were thronged with streams of coolies stumbling up them, each with a long bamboo pole, on which dozens of lovely flower-baskets were precariously slung. I am sure that nobody was forgotten when the Ranchi sailed! Mr. and Mrs. Murdoch had a big party in the smoke-room. Mr. and Mrs. Waddington are only going on short leave but had a lot of fond farewells to say. Mr. and Mrs. Sutton and Barbara are leaving, alas, for good, and had a wonderful send-off from Queen's Pier with a great many friends and members of the Department to see them depart. Commander and Mrs. Sissmore will be greatly missed. They too will not be coming back again. Miss Joan Molleson left a great many friends behind, and seems to have crammed an amazing amount into her short stay. Miss Vanderkist was sad at saying good-bye (for rumour says she leaves her heart behind in the charge of an official flannel). Several cheery A.P.C. lads were going on leave and may be relied upon to waken things up. So it is probable that the "Ranchi" will have a very gay trip home.

There was great disappointment among the Peak Children last Saturday when the School Sports were again postponed owing to rain. They may be held next Saturday instead, and if so it is to be hoped they will be given in the afternoon, when proud Fathers can be present... Instead of at ten o'clock in the morning when all the parents are busy in their offices.

INVASION OF MANCHURIA CONDEMNED

FURTHER JAPANESE PENETRATION FEARED

Canton's Request For Drastic Measures

(From Our Special Correspondent)

Canton, April 15.
An important circular telegram was issued last night by the Kuomintang South-west Executive Committee, requesting the Central Authorities to make public what has been decided at the recent Nanchang conference with regard to measures to protect North China from the encroachment of Manchukuo authorities.

Urging severe punishment to those who made concessions to the enemy, the circular telegram re-emphasized the policy of surrender and submission and advocated the recovery of lost territories and the protection of "the country from invasion."

Emperor Kang Teh is being utilized by the Japanese to stretch his feet farther into China proper; the telegram pointed out. "With the impending loss of Mongolia and Sinkiang North China is in a critical condition. A responsible official of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs stated that China's difficulties with Japan cannot be settled by diplomacy or force."

"Showing such helplessness, the Central Authorities must be held responsible for the present deplorable situation. The National Government should have a definite policy to meet this crisis."

Press dispatches from Shanghai stated that General Huang Fu, Chairman of the Peiping Political Affairs Readjustment Committee, was inclined to make further concession to the Japanese, but at the recent conference at Nanchang General Chiang Kai Shek and Mr. Wang Ching Wei sensing national opposition instructed General Huang Fu not to make undue concession but to negotiate on outstanding issues as best as he can.

Leaders here are keeping a close watch on the development in North China and the forthcoming meeting at Nanking between General Huang Fu and Mr. Akira Arisaka, the Japanese Minister to China. It is believed here that if Nanking yields to Japanese pressure, there will be serious developments and reactions in Canton.

PRICE LEVELS IN ITALY

Campaign Started For Reduction

(Special to "Hong Kong Daily Press")
(By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1934. Received, April 15, 7:30 p.m.)

Rome, April 15.
A great campaign for bringing all prices throughout Italy into accord with those of other countries which have depreciated currencies commenced last Saturday by a reduction in the salaries of Civil Servants and, at the same time, a corresponding reduction of such items in the family budget as rents on dwellings and business premises.

All salaries of Civil Servants of 500 lira per month will be reduced by six per cent; between 500 and 1,000 lira by 8 per cent, and 1,000 to 1,500 lira by 10 per cent, over 1,500 by 12 per cent.—Transocean Kuo Min.

ECONOMIES IN FRANCE

To Be Rigidly Carried Out

Paris, April 13.
The Government will not tolerate any demonstration that is calculated to disturb public order, states an official communique issued after a Cabinet meeting this morning, called specially in reference to the proposed civil servants' demonstration, arranged for tomorrow.

The communique adds that the decree relating to the cuts in ex-Servicemen's pensions will operate from April 1.

DEMANDS REFUSED
The Government has thus refused the ex-Servicemen's demands that a three per cent cut should operate from June 1.

M. Doumergue explained that such a concession would upset the whole recovery scheme. Measures have already been taken to deal with the ringleaders responsible for the partial strikes which have occurred.—Reuter.

Soviet Plan to Salvage Chelyuskin

(Special to "Hong Kong Daily Press")
(By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1934. Received, April 15, 7:30 p.m.)

Moscow, April 15.
Encouraged by the phenomenal rescue of the Chelyuskin castaways, the Soviet Government have begun to plan a new expedition to salvage the sunken vessel, although the technical difficulties besetting this project are known to be enormous.

The projected salvage is not so much for the value of the objects to be recovered but that the Soviet Government should seize every opportunity for winning distinction in the sphere of applied science and technology after her worthy achievements, such as those of the Soviet airmen in their rescue work of the sunken vessel's crew and in various stratosphere ascents.—Transocean Kuo Min.

COMMUNISTS IN S. CHINA

Quick Eradication Desired

(From Our Special Correspondent)

Canton, April 15.
To effect a junction with the Kuangtung troops, General Ho Chien, field commander of the West Route Anti-Communist Expeditionary Force, has sent a liaison officer to Canton, who arrived here yesterday. He called on General Chen Tsiang Tong with regard to joint efforts with the Hunanese troops to clean up the Communist bandits in Southern Kiangsi.

Besides discussing anti-Communist campaign, the liaison officer is reported to be on a political mission, as General Ho Chien is interested to effect close co-operation with the leaders of the South-west.

Other liaison officers on the way to Canton are representatives of General Chiang Ting Wen, commanding the East Route Anti-Communist expeditionary force, and General Chen Cheng, commanding the Central Route anti-Red Expeditionary Force. Both Generals Chiang and Chen have asked the Canton high command to speed up the push from their base at On Yuen in Southern Kiangsi, so that the Reds may be attacked from four directions.

It is learned here that General Chiang Kai Shek, Chairman of the Nanking Military Commission, expects to liquidate the campaign in three months. He has ordered all the anti-Communist route commands, including Canton, to lose no time in the coming drive. General Chiang feels that the Reds have held up many urgent problems which require settlement and that therefore they must be subdued.

Four Kuangtung divisions are now in southern Kiangsi in connection with the anti-Red expedition. Minor engagements occurred during the end of the week, and the onslaught against Kwan-munling, the Red citadel, is scheduled to take place sometime this week.

DEFLATION IN ITALY

Move To Protect Gold Reserves

London, April 14.

Italy's recent economy measures have a severe deflationary aspect, the object being to prevent withdrawals of gold and to maintain export trade against the currency advantages gained by the United States, Great Britain and Japan.

The measures represent the first, severe deflationary actions taken by a member of the gold bloc.

It is pointed out that Italy's exports have declined heavily recently as compared with Japan's, which have increased considerably in terms of the yen, and slightly even in terms of gold.—Reuter.

SOVIET NAVAL FILM

Propaganda Against British Force

Riga, April 14.
A film called "Sailors of the Royal Navy" showing "the atmosphere of revolt now prevailing in British warships" has been produced by the Soviet cinema industry, which announces that the public can see how revolutionary internationalism is shattering the illusion of the patriotism of the Imperialist fighting forces.

In the picture, "Seaman Clarence" turns to revolution because he is jilted in love.

The Soviet Press complains that the film does not go far enough. The officers are too gentlemanly and are not shown brutally exploiting the men, while the Lords of the Admiralty are too mild and good-humoured.—Reuter.

GERMANY'S NEW COMMERCIAL POLICY

ECONOMIC SELF-SUFFICIENCY TO BE ABANDONED

(Special to "Hong Kong Daily Press")

(By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1934. Received, April 15, 4:30 a.m.)

Berlin, April 14.

A new epoch of Germany's foreign trade relationships was launched on Saturday night when Foreign Minister, von Neurath, in a speech at the annual banquet of the Society of Friends of the Thero-American Institution, set forth essentials of the Reich's Government's new commercial policy.

Von Neurath said that the Reich's Government would aim at restoring the Hanseatic ports of Hamburg and Bremen to the predominant position they enjoyed formerly, as centres for exchange of merchandise to foreign countries but which have been lost as the result of the world war and subsequent series of crises.

Germany's commercial future, said von Neurath, would be regulated by two prime considerations. The first was that the so-called principle of economic self-sufficiency will be abandoned. "I should like to say distinctly," said the Minister, "that nobody in the Reich's Government believes that Germany could or should exist economically isolated from the rest of the world."

Admittedly, great united efforts are being made to render our people more independent than formerly of foreign foodstuffs and foreign raw materials, very considerable progress having been made especially as regards home food production. On the other hand, our position in Central Europe makes it imperative to most carefully nurture trade relationships with neighbouring countries, while the necessity of importing raw materials implies friendly commercial relationships with overseas countries.

EQUAL EXCHANGES.

The second consideration was that the whole of the import trade has to be supervised more systematically than heretofore. The policy of currency depreciation and commercial isolation pursued by many countries had forced upon Germany the necessity of so regulating foreign trade that Germany would buy raw materials preferably from those countries that bought finished products from Germany, the value of goods exchanged with each country being made as nearly equal as possible in each case. Moreover, it is impossible after this to allow every individual business or trade to shape its own commercial policy, for instance, no municipal administration should be allowed to shut certain goods off the public market place, merely because of foreign origin.

The success of this new commercial policy, said the Minister, naturally depended upon the consolidation of the international and political situation. Where Germany felt she had right and justice on her side she would of course hold tenaciously to her claims.—Transocean Kuo Min.

HEAD OF BERLIN POLICE

Dismissed For Being Humane

Berlin, April 14.

Herr Diehl, Inspector-General of the German Secret Police and also Vice-President of the Berlin Police, has been dismissed and will be replaced in the first-named post by Herr Himmler, who controls all police affairs outside Prussia.

Herr Diehl is a young man with Liberal tendencies, and was appointed by General Goering the Prussian Premier and head of the Prussian Police.

It is believed that he has been treating political prisoners, including the Reichstag fire trial prisoner, Dimitroff, and other Communists, humanely and has therefore incurred the disapproval of many of the leading Nazis. Herr Himmler is reputed to be a "strong man" and a fanatical Hitlerite, brooking no opposition.

His appointment under the nominal leadership of General Goering is likely to lead to interesting developments vis-a-vis General Goering.—Reuter.

Washington, April 14.

Loans to nations which have made token debt payments are also prohibited under the Bill.—Reuter.

South Wales Borderers Now Favourites

St. Joseph's lost a point with the Club by playing a goalless draw on the Club ground.

South Wales Borderers are now the favourites for the League championship, but they have to meet the Club in their final league match. They beat Kowloon on the Railway ground by four clear goals.

The R.A. and Recreio shared points at Caroline Hill. South China by defeating Recreio by the only goal scored, secured the runners up position in Division III.

KOWLOON V. S.W. BORDERERS

The Borderers, after being held by Kowloon on the Railway ground during the first half of the game, put on four goals without reply and strengthened their position in the race for the championship.

Cord was mainly responsible for the Borderers failing to score during the opening half. The military men opened at a great pace but lacked control close in. Kowloon fought back and Cook missed a shot from a pass by Blake. A corner kick to their supporters, Jones, missing from close range.

The Borderers took the lead early in the second half, the ball going in to beat Cord after striking Willis. Jones scored the second goal soon after and within a couple of minutes Jones had put the Borderers three up. Kowloon then had a turn and were unlucky when Winch shot against the crossbar. From now until the final whistle sounded the Borderers pressed hard, but could add one goal only before the final whistle sounded.

Kowloon F.C.—Cord; Willis, Eastman; C. White, Elliott, Whitehead; Humphreys, Cook, Winch, V. White and Blake.

South Wales Borderers—Smith; Mullane, Morrison; Davies, Podmore, Underwood; Mathias, Hazlewood, Fortey, Jones and Duncan.

R.A. v. Recreio.

At Caroline Hill, the R.A. and Recreio played a drawn game the score being one goal all.

The Gunners opened with a strong attack but wild shooting kept the score down. The Gunners eventually netted but the goal was disallowed. The Recreio took the lead when L. Castilho nipped in and beat Wood after he had made a weak clearance from T. Castilho.

Leading by a goal on the cross over, Recreio soon lost their advantage; the Gunners drawing level through Hopkins.

The Gunners pressed hard, but the Recreio defence held out until the final whistle, sounded with the score one, all.

H.K. CLUB V. ST. JOSEPH'S

On the Club ground, St. Joseph's and the Club divided the points in a goalless drawn game.

St. Joseph's were unlucky in not securing both points, but they found Rodger on top form.

A rush by E. Strange had the Saints' defence guessing, but the shot went wide of the posts. B. Gosano shot a little too high from close range while at the other end E. Strange again shot wide.

A corner kick to the visitors was fruitless Gosano hitting behind.

The Club had the misfortune to lose Pose-Hunt through injury during the first half of the game.

Pose-Hunt resumed after the interval, taking up the left back position. Ward and Gosano were always dangerous, but Rodger did well to keep his goal intact.

E. Strange was prominent with a solo effort, but his shot cleared the bar. With the Club pressing hard for the winning goal, the final whistle sounded with the score sheet blank.

CLUB DE RECREIO V. S.C.A.A.

On the Kowloon F.C. ground, a late goal by South China gave them the points in their final match of the season. Cheung Hing Lun was forced to retire from the game early. The only goal of the match was scored by Lau Wing Kwong.

OLYMPIC SWIMMING TRIALS

Lau Po Hee Betters Own Record

BUT WILL NOT BE OFFICIALLY RECOGNISED

The preliminary swimming trials to select Hong Kong's Chinese aquatic representatives to meet the Canton aquatic stars for the right to represent China in the forthcoming Olympic Games in Manila next month, were held at the Chinese Y.M.C.A. Swimming Pool on Saturday night last, when several excellent heats were performed, notably that of Lau Po-hee's, in the 100 metres backstroke, when he established a new time of 81 seconds, clipping 23 seconds off his own record created at the National Meeting at Nanjing in October of last year.

Although this is in itself a new record, it will not be recognised owing to the fact that the Chinese Y.M.C.A. Pool is under the official length of 25 metres.

Kwok Chun-hang, the Colony's 50 metres stroke record holder and winner of the National title, sprang a surprise in the 1,500 metres Free Style event when he overtook Mak Wai-ming, the diminutive Hong Kong Chinese Civil entrant to take first place. Wong Hung-lung of Amoy who was expected to take first place in the event and who started a favourite, was unplaced, finishing five minutes behind the winner.

The following were the results:—100 Metres Back Stroke (Men):—1. Lau Po-hee; 2. Shek Kam-pui; 3. Lai Yim-chien.

Time:—1 min. 21 secs. Also swam:—Kwok Hung-ming and To Siu-lam.

THE GOVERNOR'S CUP.

Chinese A.A.F. Defeat H.K.F.A.

Playing in the return match at Caroline Hill in The Governor's Challenge Cup Competition, the Hong Kong C.A.A.F. defeated the Hong Kong F. A. by the odd goal in seven.

H. E. The Officer Administering the Government, Sir Thomas Southern, K.B.E., C.M.G. and Lady Southern, accompanied by Capt. R. F. Walker, A.D.C., arrived before the kick off and were interested spectators during the match.

There was a good attendance when the teams lined out and there were many exciting incidents during the game.

The H.K.C.A.A.F. took the lead through Lee Wai Tong who sent in a fast low shot from the penalty line. The H.K.F.A. were not long in arrears for Malpas rushed the ball into the net from a pass by Ridley. The Federation took the lead from a penalty kick. Lee Wai Tong taking the spot kick failed to beat Cord at the first time, but following up when the ball rebounded from the goal, shot into the net. The Association tried hard to level up before the interval, but the teams crossed over with the Federation a goal in the lead.

Second Half

The Association opened the second half with an attack on the Federation goal but failed to add to their score although going close. Tso Kwai Shing beat Cord with a fast rising shot, the ball just going in close to the post, Cord only reaching the ball on its way to the net. The Association reduced the lead through Malpas the same player netting the third goal to complete his "hat-trick." He netted again soon after but had the goal disallowed for offside.

The crowd had settled down to a draw, but just on time Lee Wai Tong shot fast and true from the penalty line to beat Cord to score the fourth goal for the Federation and individually his third goal of the match. The final whistle sounded shortly after the end of the match. Hong Kong C.A.A. Federation 4, Hong Kong F. A. 3. H.K.C.A.A.F.—Pau Ka Ping; Li Ting Sang, Lau Mei, Ho Chor Yin, Leung Wing Chun, Fung King Cheong, Lee Wai Tong, Tam Kong Pak and Ip Pak Wah. H.K.F.A.—Cord; Mullane, A. V. ## SMART WORK BY POLICE

Pirates Caught Near Hong Kong

An exchange of shots with suspected Chinese pirates, the wounding and arrest of one of them and the recovery of a cargo of wolfram ore valued at $1,750 is disclosed in reports made by Sub-Inspector Stewart of Tsim-Sha-Tsui (Water-Police) Station, Kowloon.

At about 9 o'clock on Friday morning last while junk No. 2763-V, Class Four, was in the vicinity of the Ninetips Islands, she was alleged to have been attacked by a pirate boat and robbed of her cargo of 50 bags of Wolfram Ore, valued at $1,750.

While on patrol duty at Lung Shun-wan, Sub-Inspector Stewart in command of No. 4 Police Launch, received information that a pirates' boat was anchored at Kun Mun.

Accompanied by some of his men, Sub-Inspector Stewart proceeded to Kun Mun by an overland route. Arriving at the scene, four men were seen to jump from the suspected pirate vessel and fire one shot at the Police.

The latter returned the fire and managed to wound one of the pirates who was subsequently arrested, the remainder of the pirates fled in the direction of Lan Nai-wan.

Two of the three pirates who escaped are believed to have been wounded when the Police returned fire, one in the buttock and another in the left arm. The Police are watching all hospitals and dressing stations.

The following description of the suspected men is given. Two men were dressed in grey cotton clothing, while the remaining one was in blue cotton clothing. All three men were of medium height and their ages averaged between 20 and 30 years.

On the boat captured by the Police at Kun Mun were found three other Chinese men who claimed to have been captured by the pirates who made their escape.

One rifle, 9 live cartridges and one dagger were found on board.

Further particulars are so far unknown.—Transocean Kuo Min.

SHOOTING LODGE BLOWN UP

Vienna, April 13. The shooting lodge of Starhemberg's Heimwehr contingent in Salzburg was blown to pieces on Friday by two ammonia bombs placed by unknown persons. Fortunately no sportsman was in the building at the moment of the explosion. Popular suspicion is divided between the feted members of the Social Democratic Schutzbund and extremists of the Christian Socialist group with which Starhemberg is now coming to grips in the mountain provinces.—Transocean Kuo Min.

DR. SAHM VISITS ROME

MORE FAVOURABLE CONDITIONS

Berlin, April 13. Pastors of the German Evangelical Church, serving abroad, had from now onwards be assured more favourable conditions according to important revisions of regulations made by the Spiritual Ministry on Friday. In reckoning the period of foreign service, pastors who have been 10 years abroad are entitled to reckon the service as 12, while 20 years foreign service can be reckoned as 25, and every further completed period of 5 years will count as 6. This will result in pastors' pensions being appreciably increased.—Transocean Kuo Min.

GERMAN POLITICS OVER RADIO

Berlin, Apr. 13. Minister Goebbels opened a series of broadcast talks about the political situation of the Reich, already announced which from now onwards will be a regular weekly feature. Goebbels opened by saying that in order to appreciate the improvements occurring in Germany during the last 14 months it was necessary to put oneself back into the state of affairs that existed two years ago, otherwise it was difficult to understand the big achievements attained in all spheres of public life. For instance, it would have been regarded as a miracle in March 1932 had German unemployment declined by more than half a million within four weeks. What at that time seemed impossible has to-day become a concrete fact. But we are all so close to these occurrences that we actually regard it as a matter of course. Goebbels then reviewed briefly the whole field of economic developments, showing convalescence everywhere is proceeding rapidly. Above all, he said, the law for protection of national work coming into force on May 1 "Germany's Labour Day" must be regarded as an immense social advance. Goebbels concluded by expressing the hope that statesmen responsible for directing the destiny of nations would soon arrive at an acceptable solution of the international problems. It lay in the power of others to give the whole world happiness, stability and advancement. Germany is ready to do her part to attain these aims.—Transocean Kuo Min.

A SENSATIONAL REVELATION

Brussels, Apr. 13. A great sensation was caused on Friday when the fact was made known that as far back as December, 1933 the State prosecutor at Ghent warned the clergy of St. Bravo Church that he had received an anonymous letter giving exhaustive particulars of a plan for the robbery of the masterpiece Van Eyck brothers. No sooner had this become known than the police began an investigation on lines suggested by the warning letter with the result that a jobless architect who the day before disappearance of the altarpiece spent a long time in the Church and did not return home at night, was arrested. Up till now he has not been able to establish his alibi. The Belgian Cabinet are now organizing better protection for the nation's art treasures and propose to have the famous altarpiece placed in the art gallery of Ghent or Brussels.—Transocean Kuo Min.

TO CHECK ANTI-SEMITISM

Vienna, Apr. 13. To check the increase of anti-Semitism in Austria which has been very much in evidence during recent months, the Vienna police intervened on Friday forbidding the scheduled meeting of the Austro-German Anti-Semitic League, also prohibiting the street sale of new Germany's foremost anti-Jewish publication Julius Streicher's "The Stormer" issued in Nuremberg.—Transocean Kuo Min.

THE "ENGLISHMAN"

Ceases Publication After 113 Years

Special Air-Mail Service

London, March 28. The disappearance of the "Englishman," after 113 years' continued publication in India, does not come as a surprise. For many years it had been fighting a losing battle against the "Statesman," which changed its name from the "Friend of India" in the 1870's. A succession of able editors, continuing the tradition of Meredith Townsend (of "Spectator" fame), established the "Statesman's" pre-eminence. After the war both papers were acquired by Sir David Yule, and operated under joint ownership.

Two years ago the "Englishman" changed from a daily to a weekly paper. It appeared on Monday, the only day on which the "Statesman" was not published.

"The chief result of the former's demise will be to turn the 'Statesman' from a 6-day to a 7-day paper."

GOLFER WHO DROVE THROUGH A DOORWAY

An Amazing Shot In Halford-Hewitt Trophy Tournament

Special Air-Mail Service

London, March 28. One of the most remarkable golf shots ever seen on a championship course was performed by E. C. Tyrwhitt-Drake, who represented Lancing Old Boys in the Public Schools Old Boys' tournament for the Halford-Hewitt Cup at Royal Cinque Ports, Deal, to-day.

Tyrwhitt-Drake was playing with E. C. Pemberton against Rex Hartley and J. D. Barrington-Ward (Westminster), and from the first tee Tyrwhitt-Drake's ball took an extraordinary flight.

The club-house is nearly one hundred yards down on the right of the fairway, and the ball pitched through the doorway of the hall. The opening is about four feet in width, and then the ball scuffed down the corridor and came to rest outside the door of the dining-room.

It was a lucky circumstance that although the foot of the club-house was crowded with people no one was hurt by the flying ball. Pemberton played another shot from the teeing ground and the game went on its way.

GERMANY AND SPORT

Search For Unknown Sportsman

(Special to "Hong Kong Daily Press")
(By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1894)
Received, April 15, 1.30 a.m.)

Berlin, April 14.

"A search for the unknown sportsman" begins on Sunday morning when in 2,000 centres throughout Germany, sportsmen will be tested by experts, with the object of bringing to light all possible undiscovered talent.

Altogether ninety thousand aspirants will be examined during the next few days. The reason for this national stock taking is to gather the best possible material from which to choose competitors for the next Olympic games to be held in Berlin in 1936.

Although the test will apply to all forms of sport, chief attention at present concerns cyclists, runners and walkers. Over 30,000 cyclists will be tried out on Sunday on a 100 kilometre ride, while runners will be tested for a distance of 10 kilometres and walkers 25.

When the selection of the most promising material has been made, candidates will be subjected to two years hard training and from these the choice of Olympians will be made.

Enthusiasm throughout the Reich is so great that the organisers themselves are astonished at the response which has come from every quarter of the country.

(By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1894)
Received, April 15, 1.30 a.m.)

Berlin, April 14.

"His many friends in Hongkong will be glad to hear that the honour of Khan Sahib has been conferred on Mr. Sirdar Khan by His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor General of India.

Mr. Sirdar Khan, it will be recalled, retired from Government Service in Hongkong last year, after serving for a period of thirty years. He was Chief Clerk at the Harbour Office at the time of his retirement.

A keen public servant, he took a deep interest in Police Reserve Work in Hongkong both during the War and in more recent years. He was Assistant Superintendent of Police (Reserve) and was at the head of the Indian division. His departure from the colony was the occasion for much regret on the part of his colleagues and friends.

Mr. Sirdar Khan was a popular member of the Indian Recreation Club of which he was upon several occasions Vice President. In his younger days, he figured in the Club's cricket teams in the second division, being captain in 1928-7 when they won the league.

The award gives gratification to his many friends in Hongkong, with whom we join in extending congratulations to Mr. Sirdar Khan.

GERMANY'S FOREIGN CREDITORS

Nations Concerned Not In Full Agreement

(Special to "Hong Kong Daily Press")
(By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1894.
Received, April 15, 4.30 a.m.)

Berlin, April 14.
Reports from Basel confirm that as a result of recent discussions between representatives of the Reichsbank and Germany's foreign creditors, the conference on the Reichsbank will begin on April 27. The choice of the "neutral personality" to act as Chairman seems to have fallen unanimously on Leon Fraser, the president of the Bank of International Settlements, and trustee for the Dawes and Young obligations. That the conference will take place at all is considered here to indicate that creditors have begun to show more sympathy for Germany's difficulties and at the abnormal circumstances.

It appears that foreign creditors are not in agreement with one another about the course to be pursued at the conference. Two memoranda have been prepared by them, one signed by all creditors setting forth the views which are unanimous; the other dealing with special claims of individual countries. News received from Switzerland seems to indicate that this country succeeded in obtaining from other creditors consent to receive from Germany interest payments in full on the same terms and for the same reasons as heretofore. — Transocean Kuo Min.

NO NEWS AT END OF THIRD DAY

STORY OF THE GREAT FLOOD

Confirmation By Ur Discoveries

London, April 13.
Commenting on the fact that after twelve seasons of careful and scientific exploration, the joint expedition of the British Museum and the University of Pennsylvania have completed their labours at Ur of the Chaldees, the Times says their work has marked an epoch in Archaeology.

For the first time, two distinct scientific institutions of two countries have co-operated and their successive campaigns represent the longest continuous examination of a site that has yet been undertaken.

Their excavations have carried back the record to the first human occupation of the Euphrates Valley when Ur was a hamlet in a marsh, and their discoveries have illustrated, with an astonishing wealth of detail, periods formerly known in the barest outline.

Abundant light has been thrown on the domestic life of the people of Ur twenty centuries before the Christian era.

Of even greater importance has been the unmistakable confirmation of the Biblical tradition that a flood of gigantic dimensions — which left eleven feet of silt at one point near Ur — once overwhelmed the lowlands of Iraq and destroyed its settlements. — British Wireless.

IRON AND STEEL INDUSTRY

Five Year Plan For Reorganisation

London, April 14.

The biggest attempt at industrial reorganisation yet launched in Great Britain is contained in the draft Five Year Plan for the reorganisation of the iron and steel industry.

The plan will give the British Iron and Steel Federation complete control of the industry throughout the Empire.
It is understood that the scheme has the Treasury's approval and it is therefore anticipated that the present duty of 33 1/3rd per cent. on imported iron and steel, due to expire in October and imposed on condition that the industry reorganise itself, will be continued.

The scheme is voluntary and free from State control.
It empowers the Federation to control imports by quota in order to make the industry independent of tariffs within five years.
It seeks to recover lost world markets by means of an export levy on home sales, and by reorganising production by eliminating wasteful competition, encouraging amalgamations and the modernisation of plant, and by securing the coordination of every iron and steel enterprise in the Empire. — Reuter.

RESTRICTION OF RUBBER

Dutch Gov. Denies Rumours

London, April 14.
It is understood that the Dutch Colonial Office, authorised by the Dutch Government, to declare that no official statement of any kind regarding rubber restriction has been made or authorised by them.
A further message from The Hague states that the Dutch proposals, although not officially sanctioned by the Government, emanated from a Government source which insists on the accuracy of the report. — Reuter.

ROOSEVELT AND SILVER BILL

Expected To Change Tactics

New York, April 15.

The Herald Tribune's Washington correspondent says that Mr. Roosevelt held a conference with fifteen Democratic leaders, including Garner and Morgenthau in an effort to check revolting elements in Congress to the session to an early adjournment by paving the way for agreement on a minimum legislative programme. He refrained from taking a flat stand against silver inflationist legislation but it is indicated he would compromise, although he made it clear he is in opposition to extreme mandatory silver action.

The daring feat was accomplished early last month, when 72 survivors of the "Chelyuskin," who were marooned on an ice-doe when the ship was crushed and sunk. — PLANES RESCUE DOGS

Moscow, Apr. 13.
Even the dogs, faithful companions of the Chelyuskin castaways in many weeks enforced exile are reported to be rescued by planes, according to the first complete account of the perilous adventures of the ice-breaker's crew received here on Friday. The last rescue flights whereby the remaining men and animals were brought to safety were fraught with exceptional danger but finally everything was cleared except one airplane, too badly smashed to be worth the transport. Aviator Slepnev has already delivered Professor Schmidt into the hands of the skilled physicians of the Fairbanks hospital in Alaska whence the latest reports say that Schmidt's recovery is considered assured. The Soviet Government is preparing a gala welcome and national rejoicings for the sturdy crew and heroic rescuers who are all expected to assemble in Moscow within a fortnight. — Transocean Kuo Min.
